At the javoli.com webshop, it is possible to pay for the purchased goods not immediately, but at a later date. We provide this with the help of an external financial partner, Péntech Financial Solutions Zrt. ("Péntech"), through its factoring payment method called PastPay. In this case, if you select PastPay (factoring) as the payment method at checkout and Péntech undertakes to finance the given transaction, Péntech will factor the invoice issued by the Service Provider to you, therefore it will purchase the Service Provider's claim against you and pays the invoice value to the Service Provider instead of you. In such cases, the invoice issued by the Service Provider already contains the unique legal features of the scheme and the necessary information. It is IMPORTANT that after factoring, your payment obligation remains with Péntech, which can only be paid to the account number of Péntech indicated on the invoice. You must fulfill your payment obligation no later than the due date of the invoice, otherwise a flat rate of 40 euros will be charged. By using PastPay, you consent to the forwarding of your contact details (name, email address, phone number) to Péntech. This is primarily necessary so that we can send you the information and notifications necessary for the grant and the payment process. You can find Péntech's Privacy Policy here. Delivery of the Products

Delivery by Courier

The delivery of the packages is completed by courier companies GLS, DPD, DHL, Dachser, Express One, Foxpost, Sameday, Packeta, Hungarian Post (MPL) on workdays between 8 AM and 5 PM - without any conciliation.

The courier delivers packages from Monday until Friday from 8 AM until 5 PM. Supplier sends to the Customer confirmation e-mails about the status changing of the package to the registered e-mail address.

If the Customer is not at the delivery address at the time when the courier completes the delivery, the courier leaves a note for the Customer about the unsuccessful delivery. On the note there is a number and Customer can contact with the courier and according to this number Customer can ask another delivery with a wished appointment or another delivery address. The courier tries to make the delivery of the package once again.

The courier tries to deliver the package altogether twice. The shipping cost which is paid by the Customer includes two delivery attempts. If the second delivery is also unsuccessful - due to the mistake of the Customer -, the third attempt should be completed by the Supplier again just if the Customer pays the shipping cost again to the Supplier and this payment arrives to the bank account of the Supplier. This command is not valid if the delivery fails due to the mistake of the Supplier.

If the Customer realises some damage on the package when it is delivered, Customer should not take the package from the courier and send it back. The Customer is responsible about the deterioration of the product just if the damage occurs despite of the nature, features, function and operation of the product. The Supplier can require the nature, feature, function and operation of the product and the refundment of the deterioration.

The Cancellation Policy is not valid for the Customer if:

If the Customer did not require the correction or the replacement, or he/she was not able to ask it, Customer can require the proportional consideration of the damage for the cost of Supplier, or the Customer can also fix it for the cost of Supplier, or Customer can make it by a third person, or - in final case - Customer can have his/her Cancellation Policy.
